	The invention set forth in claims 1 and 2 does not involve an inventive step in the light of document 1 or document 2 cited in the international search report. The magnitude of the distance between the position where the throttle valve is disposed and the position where the air intake flow sensor is disposed, as defined in terms of the magnitude of the diameter of the inflow pipe, is merely a design matter that could have been configured by a person skilled in the art, as appropriate.
